A&CC Celebrates Illinois Arts Month with Music and Poetry

The Art and Culture Commission celebrated Illinois Arts Month in October with a number of exciting events at the Lemont Center for the Arts (LCA), including an outstanding performance by the Kingswood Academy Musical Theater group, and a delightful poetry reading by members of the Illinois State Poetry Society. There was also a reception that marked both the first anniversary of the LCA, and its second annual juried exhibit. It was a very busy month indeed!

First, There Was Music . . .

With only a week's notice to prepare, 22 Kingswood Academy Musical Theater performers grabbed their old material from previous shows, devoted more time to perfecting their current repertoire from School House Rock Live!, and provided about 50 people with a fun-filled evening of toe-tapping tunes to entertain young and old alike. Their energetic and well-orchestrated musical revue truly dazzled the audience, as was apparent from the number of people singing along to familiar songs like 76 Trombones from Music Man; Candy Man from Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory; and a medley of tunes from the early 20th century through the 1990s, including You're a Grand Old Flag and Give My Regards to Broadway.

Becky McNulty, Director of the Kingswood Academy Musical Theater group, and her Vocal Coach, Janet Podczerwinski, Kingswood Academy's choir director, are both known to be demanding, yet loving, serious, but fun. They adhere to a tight, productive rehearsal schedule carefully planned to bring out the very best singing and dancing in the young performers. Not only do their efforts pay off in spades in terms of quality and positive audience feedback, but they also nurture the actors' obvious love of performing.

McNulty's choreography background, coupled with Podczerwinski's musical expertise, produce musically infectious shows that please.

... And Then Came Poetry ...

The Lemont community also had the distinct pleasure to hear poetry read by members of the Illinois State Poetry Society, the state chapter of the national organization of poets. Before a standing-room-only crowd, various poets, including those from Lemont and Joliet, delighted listeners with their unique verse and rhyme that brought rounds of applause from the audience.

The poetry reading was organized by Michael Galati, a retired Lemont High School English teacher and winner of the 2009 Studs Terkel Humanities Service Award, presented to a local volunteer for outstanding efforts on behalf of the humanities in the community.

The Illinois State Poetry Society meets every other month at the Lisle Public Library. For more information, visit the ISPS website at: www.illinoispoets.org.

The Art & Culture Commission plans to continue hosting various performing arts and literary events, and stresses that the Kingwood musical performance and the ISPS poetry reading mark the start of a long "oral tradition" at the LCA. Stay tuned for more ...

Lemont Loves the Arts is here! This year's theme is "My Dream Is..." This is a community arts program sponsored by all of the K-8 schools in Lemont. The program gives students an opportunity to express their creativity based on a theme. Entries are judged on the interpretation of the theme, originality, creativity and artistic merit. A Community Open House will be held on December 6th at Ss. Cyril and Methodius School, 607 Sobieski Street, Lemont.

The winning artwork will be on display at the Lemont Center for the Arts, January 6 through February 26. Please stop in to see great art by talented Lemont elementary, middle school and junior high students.

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."

-Eleanor Roosevelt

The Lemont Center for the Arts is in need of volunteers to staff the gallery. This is a non-stressful opportunity to become involved in your community. If you are 18 years of age or older, please consider giving a few hours a week to the LCA. All that is required is some spare time, a friendly disposition to greet visitors, and an interest in the artistic environment of Lemont. Please contact Mona Parry 708-301-7496.
